looked into. The industrial climate in U.P. is becoming favourable, we have to look into first the infrastructure of the industries and that is why, credit deposit ratio being low, we are giving priority to certain generating units so that development process starts and the credit deposit ratio increases.

SHRI P. N. SUKUL: Sir ,I was just going to ask this very question—it has been asked.

WRITTEN ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Involvement of officers of the Chandigarh Administration in Lottery Fraud

*226. SHRI SHANKER SINH VAGHELA:

SHRI KAILASH PATI MISHRA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news report which appeared in the 'Indian Express' of 15th March, 1986 to the effect that the Chief Commissioner and Finance Secretary of the Chandigarh Administration along with some top business houses of the region have figured in a lottery fraud case allegedly trying to defraud the State by about Rupees 1.43 crores, if so, what are the details in this regard; and

(b) whether in spite of these findings by the Central Bureau of Investigation, the said Chief Commissioner who was due to retire has been given an extension till further orders if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): (a) Yes, Sir. Government is aware of the newspaper report.

A case has been registered by the Central Bureau of Investigation and the matter is under investigation. Meanwhile, a writ petition has also been filed by Shri B. R. Bajaj, former Finance Secretary and this is pending in the High Court of Punjab and Haryana.

(b) There are no findings yet by the Central Bureau of Investigation against the former Chief Commissioner.

Seizure of charas, heroin, gold and foreign currency in Delhi

*227. SHRIMATI SUDHA VIJAY JOSHI:

SHRI KALPNATH RAI:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of cases of unearthing and seizures in Delhi in recent weeks of huge quantities of charas, heroin, gold and foreign currency;

(b) what are the details of investigations made into these cases; and

(c) what steps are being taken to arrest the smugglers indulging in such activities in and around the capital?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): (a) During 1986 and upto 4th May, 1986, Delhi Police has seized 1490.118 kgs. of charas and heroin. The Department of Revenue, Ministry of Finance has upto 30th March, 1986 seized foreign currency worth Rs. 61.44 lacs and the Custom Collectorate, Directorate of Revenue Intelligence, Ministry of Finance has seized Rs. 2.41 crores worth of contraband gold during the same period.

(b) As the cases are at various stages of investigation, it may not be expedient to disclose the details at this stage.

(c) The following steps have been taken to arrest the activities of smugglers in and around the capital:

(i) Some active drug traffickeers/ smugglers operating interstate and also internationally have been identified. Constant watch is being maintained on them and on the drug pedlars/smugglers who are receiving consignments from the traffickeers.

(ii) Special vigil is maintained at the entry and exit points of the Union Territory of Delhi in order to apprehend the drug pedlars traffickeers/smugglers and effect seizures. Significant seizures have been made.

(iii) The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 was enacted and enforced from 14th November, 1985, providing deterrent punishment for offences under the Act.

Administrative Tribunal at Nagpur

*228. SHRI S.W. DHABE:
SHRI ASHWANI KUMAR:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that it was announced that administrative tribunal for Government servants will be established at Nagpur;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the office of the tibunal started functioning at Nagpur with the jurisdiction of state of Madhya Pradesh and Vidharba area of Maharashtra;

(c) whether it is also a fact that Government have changed the decision subsequently; and

(d) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government had notified on 26-7-1985 that one of the Benches of the proposed Administrative Tribunal shall ordinarily sit at Nagpur.

(b) The Central Administrative Tribunal was established on 1-11-1985. However, the Nagpur Bench of the Tribunal did not start functioning because the notification dated 26-7-1985 was superseded by another notification dated 31-10-1985 inw which Nagpur was not notified as one of the additional Benches.

(c) and (d) The Supreme Court while hearing certain writ petitions challenging the validity of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 had directed in their interim order dated 31-10-1985 that additional Benches of the Tribunal should be set up at the seats of those High Courts where the work load would justify the establishment of an additional Bench. The Government accordingly decided to set up more addtional Benches at the permanent seats of the High Courts in two phases. On 9-12-1985, suitable directions were made in this behalf by the Supreme Court. The establishment of additional Benches is in accordance with these directions.
